FOREWORD

THIS book gives in brief form an outline of the many and varied activities in America having for their purpose the supplying of practical aid to both the soldiers of the Allied nations and the non-combatant populations upon whom has been visited so large a share of suffering and distress. It is, in effect, a directory of the organizations—over seventy in number—comprising the Federal Council of Allied War Charities.

The tabulation of these organizations is impressive. It is not merely the number of separate Committees, the comprehensive character of the work they have undertaken and successfully accomplished, nor the large sums which have gone directly to the cause of relief through many channels.

The impressive fact is that so many distinct and separate agencies are harmoniously co-operating with the sole object of increasing efficiency and economy of operation and extending the widest and largest possible measure of relief to the War Sufferers.

The federation of these organizations into a central body constitutes strength which could not otherwise have been realized. It has created, furthermore, a feeling of confidence in each organization and in the organizations taken collectively. This has resulted in an increased flow of contributions to the individual organizations, and has done much to create a basis for effective co-operation, with the American Red Cross, which could not have been achieved had each organization acted for itself.

It is doubtful whether, in the history of the United States, so many persons of prominence have before been banded together with a common charitable object in view as are represented upon the Committees contained in this Directory. The high standing of the individuals, the fact that they are known from one end of the country to the other, and that they have volunteered their services without other motive than to assist the unfortunate victims of the war, constitutes a glorious chapter in the annals of American philanthropy.

STATEMENT

BY

JUDGE ROBERT S. LOVETT

OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

July 6, 1917

"The War Council of the National Red Cross has approved a memorandum presented by the Committee on Co-operation of the American Red Cross, to organize some of the various War Relief Charities as national auxiliaries of the Red Cross. Each auxiliary will retain its name and organization and carry on its present work in the United States. This means that an auxiliary may continue to raise funds in its own name as it has heretofore. This arrangement was approved in substance at a conference of the Committee on Co-operation of the American Red Cross and the Federal Council of Allied War Charities, held on July 6, 1917.

"The conference will meet again to perfect details and consider the problem of distribution abroad. In the meantime, all relief organizations will continue their work as heretofore. Pending negotiations for a closer alliance must not be permitted to interfere with the steady flow of relief through the accustomed channels."

STATEMENT

THE magnitude of the activities carried on by the Allied War Relief organizations described in this Directory is shown by the following figures, which approximate the relief extended. The figures are not necessarily final, but they under-estimate, rather than over-estimate, the funds raised and the value of supplies sent abroad:

Number of Committees: 75

Total Funds Raised: $20,000,000

Value of Supplies

Shipped: 10,000,000

Total $30,000,000

Membership: 2,000,000

Number of Branches: 5,000

Detailed figures may be obtained from John Moffat, Executive Chairman, League of the Allies, 360 Madison Avenue, New York City.

The League of the Allies, under the Executive Chairmanship of Mr. John Moffat, is to conduct the National American Allied Bazaar at the Grand Central Palace, New York, in November, 1917. The organization work for this Bazaar, which it is hoped will result in even larger profits than any of the former Allied Bazaars, is being conducted at 360 Madison Avenue, New York, where The League of the Allies has its offices.

The November Bazaar is to be under the patronage of the Right Honorable Arthur James Balfour. The Treasurer is Frederick H. Allen. Mr. Er Lawshé is the Executive Secretary, and Mr. J. E. Shay, Organizing Secretary. The Auditor is Mr. James Marwick.

It is expected to bring many exhibits from the war fronts in France, Belgium, Italy and Russia, which will, for the first time, give to the American people some adequate idea of the frightfulness of the war and the tremendous suffering it is imposing upon the people.

One of the most successful War Relief entertainments which has been held, was the Alley Festa, in Macdougall Alley, New York, on June 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12, 1917, under the auspices of the League of the Allies, and under the Chairmanship of John Moffat. Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney was the Honorary Treasurer.

An audit of the receipts made by Marwick, Mitchell, Peet & Company, shows that the Festa netted $62,263.73 for the American Red Cross and the Allied War Charities, which had booths. The gate receipts swelled the amounts taken in by the several Charities by 33 1-3 per cent., and the expenses were approximately only ten cents on the dollar.

Added however, to the profit realized by the War Charities, was the fact that during the Festa which was continued for two days beyond the time set, Liberty Loan Bonds were sold to the amount of $540,000. With this large sum figured in, the total expenses were brought down to approximately one cent on the dollar.

The Festa attracted wide attention in the press of New York City and proved a great stimulus to all the Funds which took part.

The French Heroes Fund was organized for the purpose of aiding the wounded and mutilated soldiers, their wives, daughters and sisters and the children of invaded France. Workshops have been established where trade and occupations are taught, with the object of providing employment and sustenance, with the idea of putting the destitute and disabled masses in France on a permanent, self-supporting basis.

The purchase of the Chateau in which was born the Marquis de La Fayette, adds to the work of the French Heroes Fund, an impressive sentimental interest for Americans, aside from the practical objects to be attained.

It is expected that the activity of the French Heroes Fund in educating boy orphans between the ages of twelve and eighteen years, sending them to this country to engage in occupations here, between their 18th and 21st years, at the expiration of which time they will return to France to take to that country the results of their experience in the United States, will be of permanent advantage in establishing a better and more intimate understanding between the peoples of the two countries. France will, by this method, give to America the enthusiasm and spirit of the French youth and will, in return, get the experience and spirit of business enterprise of America. It is hoped within a few years to have several thousand of these French orphans actively engaged in learning various occupations in America.

The French Heroes Fund will also maintain a Sanatorium near the Chateau de Chavaniac La Fayette for delicate children. The Chateau is eventually to be maintained as a museum on the lines of Washington's birthplace at Mount Vernon.

A total of $197,941.93 had been raised by the French Heroes Fund up to August 1st.

AMERICAN AMBULANCE IN RUSSIA

HAMILTON FISH, JR., Chairman

PHILIP M. LYDIG, Secretary

WILLIAM H. HAMILTON, Treasurer

MISS ELSA MAXWELL, Assistant Secretary

MISS ETHEL D. HAMILTON, Assistant Treasurer

The American Ambulance in Russia has collected up to July 1 approximately $130,000 and has 50 American ambulances in Russia doing active service directly behind the lines in the foothills of the Carpathian Mountains.

The Committee at this time is endeavoring to raise sufficient funds to install a complete American Ambulance Hospital in Russia for which $200,000 is needed, both to establish the hospital and to maintain it for one year. It is planned to have this hospital form the base for the American Ambulances which have saved and are saving thousands of lives.

Large quantities of gauze, bandages, chloroform and other hospital supplies have gone forward in addition to the actual ambulances, and Dr. Philip Newton has been sent by the Committee to Russia as chief surgeon of the ambulance units operating there. The ambulances are endeavoring to care for the wounded of an entire army corps of 55,000 men and Dr. Newton in his last report stated that every time a big battle comes, the unit is overwhelmed and the wounded that cannot be carried in the ambulances have to be transported in carts and hay wagons.

During a recent battle, the American ambulances in Russia carried over 2,200 wounded soldiers within a period of six days.

The American Ambulance in Russia is the only American organization working with the Russian Army.

AMERICAN AUXILIARY of the WOMEN'S NATIONAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION OF IRELAND (Incorporated)

10 EAST 43RD STREET, NEW YORK

Irish Office: 9 ELY PLACE, DUBLIN

THE MARCHIONESS OF ABERDEEN AND TEMAIR,
President

JOHN D. CRIMMINS, New York, Chairman

J. C. HEYER, Federal Trust Co., Boston, Treasurer

JOHN JOY EDSON, Washington Loan & Trust Company,
Washington, D. C., Treasurer

MISS MARIE E. KEATING, Secretary

This Association was formed in 1907 to promote health and happiness in the homes of Ireland, and especially to combat tuberculosis and infant mortality.

It works through a Central Council, and through about a hundred local branches, in all parts of Ireland.

On account of the war in Europe, the demands upon its workers and resources are increased, and its treasury is exhausted by reason of normal contributions being diverted to war purposes. The ravages of war particularly affect a country which has been depleted of its youth for many years by excessive emigration, and it is now of the most urgent importance for the welfare of Ireland to prevent needless infant mortality and to surround mothers and young children with conditions which will promote vigorous health of body and mind in the rising generation.

The Association includes workers from all churches and all political parties, and carefully guards those whom it seeks to help, from any interference with their religious beliefs.

Catholic families are cared for by Catholic visitors and nurses, and Protestants by Protestants.

Cardinal Logue, Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal Farley strongly commend the Association's work, and Dr. Hermann Biggs, Medical Commissioner of the State of New York, endorses it from a professional point of view (after personal inspection in Ireland), as follows:

I have never anywhere been more profoundly impressed by the need of such work as was being done there, and it seemed to me that more important results were being obtained with the money expended than has ever been the case in my experience elsewhere.

The child welfare activities were especially appealing, and it seems to me that it would be a real calamity if the financial emergencies arising from the war should result in their being curtailed or stopped. Emphasis should also be placed on the anti-tuberculosis work which has resulted in Ireland for the first time in a decline in the death rate continuously for a number of years.

Any further information regarding the Association will be gladly sent, on application to Lady Aberdeen, or to the Secretary, Miss Marie E. Keating, addressed to 10 East 43d Street, New York City.

For the purpose of promoting the child welfare work of the Association, the following ladies gave their names: Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Mrs. William Seward Webb, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. Richard C. Cabot, Mrs. Willard D. Straight, and Messrs. J. P. Morgan, New York, kindly act as depositary.

The Association has held booths in support of its work at the Allied Bazaars at Boston and Chicago. It has also organized booths for similar work carried on by the Scottish Maternity and Child Welfare Committee of the National Union of Women Workers, the Hon. Secretary of the Committee being Mrs. Ogilvie Gordon, D.Sc., Ph.D., President of the National Union of Women Workers.

At the forthcoming "Hero-land" Bazaar, to be held in New York in November, 1917, booths are being organized by Lord and Lady Aberdeen for the child-saving work in Great Britain and Ireland, carried on by the two societies mentioned above, and the National Association for the Prevention of Infant Mortality, of which the King and Queen of England are patrons, the President of the English Local Government Board being President, and the Duchess of Marlborough, Treasurer.

The Fund was organized in England and France in November, 1915, and in the United States in March, 1916. The American section is under the patronage of President Wilson; the British and Belgian sections, of the King and Queen of England and the King and Queen of Belgium, respectively; while the President of the French Republic heads the French Section. The primary object of the organization is the creation of a fund for the permanent care of the blinded soldiers of America, Great Britain, France and Belgium. There are Committees in Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Memphis, Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington, D. C. The fund had received up to May 1 of this year $466,000, all of which has gone for actual relief, the expenses having been otherwise met. Two hundred thousand dollars has been sent to France and England, partly for immediate relief and partly for investment in War Loan Bonds as foundation for a permanent fund, for which purpose $300,000 in all has been invested. The Fund needs $2,000,000 to put into effect its present and future plans. It is pledged to raise approximately $400,000 in ten years, to be sent to France in instalments of 200,000 francs yearly, and this is but a part of the sum required for the blinded Americans, French, British and Belgians.

George A. Kessler, Chairman of the Executive Committee, has been in France organizing the fund on a solid foundation. Mr. Kessler's Paris residence has been recently placed at the disposal of the French Committee, to be utilized for the temporary training of the blind, and workshops are to be established in Paris.

The Fund aims, not at sporadic or temporary relief, but for a permanent foundation for the maintenance and support of the blinded soldiers.

More than $310,000 has been contributed to this organization since its formation in March, 1916. Its purpose is to raise funds to establish and maintain trade schools in France for the thousands of maimed soldiers. The American Committee is a branch of the Union des Colonies Étrangères en France en Faveur des Victimes de la Guerre, 11 bis rue Scribe, to which all collections made in the United States are sent. More than four thousand maimed soldiers have been trained during the year in various trades and have been given employment. Schools have been opened in various parts of France. The cost of training a maimed soldier in these schools is fixed at about $100 per capita. Agricultural schools for maimed peasants are among the activities in addition to the strictly trade schools.

The purpose of the Committee has been to save the lives of members of the Christian races threatened with extermination through the war, in Western Asia. The Committee was formed October 4, 1915. Many base relief stations were established at various centers, from which help has been distributed through wide areas. In the Russian Caucasus, thousands of orphan children are under the care of agents of the organization.

The Committee is enlisting subscriptions to support these children at a cost of $3.00 per month per capita, and is also aiding the older people. All contributions have gone directly for relief in Western Asia, the administration expenses having been met privately.

Many auxiliary branches have been organized throughout the United States and it is expected ultimately to organize in every State in the Union.

Recently, many Liberty Bonds were purchased and donated by the buyers to this fund, and at a Billy Sunday meeting held in New York City on May 27th, $120,000 was subscribed.

Total contributions to July 1, 1917, aggregated $3,400,000.

The work of the American Ambulance in Paris has won world-wide fame. The Relief Committee was formed during the early stages of the war, to lend support to the hospitals and to create as widespread interest on the part of Americans, as possible.

The Committee now has members in various parts of the United States, and is, in fact, one of the most strongly represented War Relief organizations in America.

Miss Elsie Nicoll is Chairman of the Junior Committee. There are Branch Committees in Albany, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Erie, Pa., Pittsburgh, Princeton, N. J., Petersburg, Va., Providence, Cleveland, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Troy, N. Y.

The American Ambulance Hospital now cares for more than fifteen hundred patients daily at its main and auxiliary hospitals and the ambulance service has grown to about 250 ambulances on duty in Paris and at the front. The cost of maintaining the work has been borne entirely by the American public.

The Board of Governors of the Hospital in Paris is headed by Mr. Robert Bacon, President; Lawrence V. Benet, First Vice-President; Charles S. Phillips, Second Vice-President, and Shaun Kelly, Honorary Secretary.

During the year ending August 31, 1916, more than 5,000 cases of acute surgery were treated in the hospitals at Neuilly, Juilly, and in the field hospital and more than 135,000 patients were transported by the motor ambulances in Paris and in the field, but the work has been much more comprehensive than even this implies, as great quantities of dressings, hospital supplies, clothing, etc., specially donated, have been distributed and much surgical and medical relief has been given to the civilian population.

Of a total of 3,107 patients received in twelve months, ending August 31, 1917, there were but 72 deaths, making a death rate of 2 and 31 per cent., or approximately one-half of the death rate during the previous year of the hospital.

Several hundred Americans have been in active service as volunteer ambulance drivers.

AMERICAN COMMITTEE OF THE INTERNATIONAL RECONSTRUCTION LEAGUE

360 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK

FREDERICK H. ALLEN, Treasurer
JOHN MOFFAT, Executive Chairman
THOMAS RANDOLPH TURNER, Executive Secretary
Depository: Bankers' Trust Co.

This International Reconstruction League has three great purposes: Immediate relief work for the suffering war victims of Europe while the war lasts; American aid for Europe's stricken peoples when the war shall end and the gigantic task of rehabilitation begins; the education of public opinion throughout the world as to the practicability of a world-wide arrangement to insure a lasting peace, with America pledged to the support of such an arrangement.

The League plans to remain permanently in existence and to undertake relief work instantly in any part of the world where war or disaster shall make assistance necessary.

The League was founded in February, 1916. Its receipts to July 1 amount to $184,300.98.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE IN FRANCE

(Service Automobile Americain aux Armees Francaises)
American Headquarters: LEE, HIGGINSON & CO., DEPOSITORIES, 40 STATE STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

HENRY D. SLEEPER, American Representative

New York Office: WILLIAM R. HEREFORD, 14 Wall Street.

M. M. PALMER, Executive Secretary, American Field Service

Chicago Office: CHAUNCEY McCORMICK, 560 Monadnock Block

Moving Picture Committee: 432 4th Avenue, New York City

The American Field Service was formed to supply ambulances to the French Army and sections of ambulances driven by American volunteers have figured notably on the Yser, the Aisne, the Somme, in Champagne, Argonne, at Verdun, the Woevre, in Lorraine and in reconquered Alsace, and the Field Service has two ambulances with the French Armies in the Balkans. There are, at present, eighteen of these sections. Seven more ambulance sections are now in process of formation.

Since the entrance of the United States into the war, the Field Service has also formed a new Transport Branch, for the purpose of providing automobile sections, to be used for the transport of munitions at the front. Already four sections of forty-five men each, have gone to the front and other sections are being rapidly formed. The American Field Service hopes to obtain in all, 10,000 young men and the various sections they will constitute, will be organized on the same basis as the ambulance sections.

A training camp for men entering the transport work, has been organized at the front by the French Army and a school for officers of the American Field Service has likewise been organized.

Funds are now especially needed to meet the expenses of the new transport sections. It is estimated such expenses will amount to $10,000 a year per section. The personnel of the sections, it is hoped to retain as wholly American. At an annual expenditure of about $720,000, the American Field Service can offer the French Army the whole personnel for a munition transport reserve, sufficient to meet the needs of a very important part of the fund.

Funds also are needed for ambulances. An ambulance can be purchased and maintained for $1,600 per year and the names of the donors of the cars are inscribed on a plate on each car. Funds are needed for the running expenses of more than seven hundred cars now in service. Funds are also required for the maintenance of the automobile repair and construction park at Billancourt, near Paris, and for the food allowances and equipments of the new transport sections.

The American Field Service has been in Paris for more than two years, during which time it has received 99 citations from the French Army.

It is difficult to estimate the contributions to the Fund, which have been received from all parts of the United States, together with the donors of ambulances, but the sum is a very large one. Much of the money has been sent direct to Paris and much has been sent from the Boston Headquarters. In all, about 1,000 ambulances have been donated by individuals, University graduates, and organizations.

The American Field Service has cared for more than 500,000 wounded and many of the volunteers who have served with it, have been University men.

A separate activity of the Field Service is moving pictures taken of the soldiers abroad and which are shown in America, to raise money to swell the fund to maintain the Field Ambulance Service. The activities of this Committee are directed from 432 Fourth Avenue.

MRS. BENJAMIN GIRAULT LATHROP, President

MISS ANNE MORGAN, Treasurer

CHARLES BUTLER, Vice-President

MISS ELIZABETH SCARBOROUGH, Secretary

The American Fund for French Wounded was established in November, 1914, in London, under the name of the French Wounded Emergency Fund. The present organization was formed December 15, 1915. The first work of relief was in Normandy and Brittany. There are more than 500 Branch Committees, and up to July 1 more than 15,000,000 of separate articles had been shipped abroad and a sum approximating $1,000,000 had been expended.

The Fund has closely co-operated with the Vacation War Relief Committee and operates the Paris Depot for distribution. In May, 1917, 772,000 articles were shipped, and in June, 717,000 articles and $21,000 in cash contributions was received.

The organization exists in practically every State in the Union. Among the principal branches is the New England Branch in Boston, and branches in Chicago, San Francisco, Watertown, N. Y., and in Baltimore. Each branch has more than 25 Committees working under it and each Chairman of a Branch Committee is a member of the National Executive Committee.

The Paris Depot has 14 departments distributing its supplies. Mrs. Nevin, Mrs. Lathrop and other officers are in active charge of the depot in Paris, Mrs. Stillwell being in charge of the collections in America, with Miss Elizabeth Scarborough as Secretary of the Committee in America.

This organization has been formed for the collection of clothing for the victims of the European War in France, and the clothing is distributed through the War Relief Clearing House for France and Her Allies.

The organization has many branches in different parts of the United States, and in addition to supplying clothing is also contributing hospital supplies, approximately 9,000 cases having been sent to Europe.

The Committee about a year ago undertook also the collection of money for the support of orphans in France, and has pledged the support of 250 orphans for various periods of time. A hospital unit has also been formed in conjunction with Dr. Lawrence M. Moody, which will take charge of a hospital of 110 beds.

AMERICAN STUDENTS COMMITTEE OF THE ECOLE DES BEAUX-ARTS

107 EAST 37TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY

WHITNEY WARREN, Honorary President

HENRY R. SEDGWICK, Treasurer

This Committee was founded in Paris in December, 1914, by a number of the American students of the Ecole, in appreciation of the debt of gratitude which the students owed to the French nation and particularly to the school. The purpose is to keep in touch with the members and graduates of the school, now with the colors, to act as a medium of communication between them and their families and to assist the latter where necessary, and to provide the opportunity for American art lovers and friends of France to help the French artists in this their hour of need. Clothing, tobacco and other supplies are forwarded to those at the front, in hospitals, and prisoners in Germany. The Committee up to the present time has been able to meet the particular demands of its work, but additional money is now badly needed because of increased demand. The Committee has branches in Chicago, Boston, San Francisco, Washington and Philadelphia, with an active Chairman in charge of each. There are between 300 and 350 regular contributors who have given to date about $60,000.

The Paris Office of the Fund is at 17, Quai Malaquais and is conducted by seven Americans who have volunteered for the work during the period of the war. Cyrus W. Thomas is Chairman and Treasurer of the Committee in Paris and the work in America is in charge of Henry R. Sedgwick, Treasurer. The Committee in Paris is under the supervision of the American Relief Clearing House, to which financial reports are periodically made. A special fund is provided for the running expenses of the Committee, so that all contributions in response to appeals go entirely to the purpose for which they are made.

A workroom is conducted in Paris to provide work for the mothers, wives and sisters of the artists at the front, and various articles are made here for the wounded.

A much appreciated part of the work consists of the publication and distribution of atelier gazettes, which bring to each soldier extracts from letters, cartoons, addresses and other news of his former comrades of the Ecole des Beaux-Arts.

Another activity is the sale of postal cards, menu cards and drawings made by the students at the front, in Paris on leave, and in the hospitals; and these are on sale in America at the Art Gallery of M. Knoedler & Company, 556 Fifth Avenue. In all, three thousand men and more than one hundred of their families are dependent upon the Committee.

American women married to Englishmen and resident in England, organized themselves to express their sympathy with Great Britain and to aid their adopted country immediately on the outbreak of the war. Their first work was to supply six motor ambulances for use on the front and the seventh ambulance, subscribed by "Friends in Boston, U. S. A.," has been presented to the War Office.

The offer of the Fund to equip and maintain a Surgical Hospital of 200 beds, in South Devon, was accepted by the War Office on August 21, 1914, and this hospital, which has treated several thousands of cases, both medical and surgical, with an unusually small death rate, has been maintained ever since.

The total subscriptions to July 1 have amounted to over $600,000. It is the desire of the Committee that the American Women's War Relief Fund shall continue, as a proof of American sympathy with Great Britain and that it shall continue its beneficent work until the restoration of peace.

AMERICAN ICE FLOTILLA COMMITTEE

For the Service de Santé, French Ministry of War

38 WEST 39TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY

MISS GERTRUDE ROBINSON SMITH, Chairman

MISS ANNE MORGAN, Treasurer

The first work of this Committee was the raising in 1916 of $70,000 for supplying and equipping surgical automobile ambulances on the Western Front. This year, more than $100,000 has been raised for Ice Flotillas—automobiles and ice-making machines for the purpose of supplying the field hospitals with a daily supply of ice for the wounded.

The work has not only had the endorsement of the Service de Sante, and of the leading officials of the French Government, but has been endorsed by representative surgeons of the United States, who see in the adequate supply of ice the opportunity for the saving of many lives and the amelioration of the sufferings of soldiers wounded in battle, or victims of fevers and other disease incidental to service at the front.

Committees have been formed in various cities and the Ice Flotillas are distinguished at the front by the name of the city whose contribution made the individual unit possible.

Belgian Refugees Knitting Yarn Fund
HARVARD, MASS.

MRS. FISKE WARREN, Secretary and Treasurer

The first appeals for yarn to be sent abroad for the employment and support of Belgian men and women refugees were made in December, 1914. Six small cases of yarn was the first shipment to be distributed. The work has since steadily grown and has been aided by lectures by Mrs. Hamilton Osgood, and through war poster sales conducted throughout the country. At present about three thousand pounds of yarn are used per month and the British War Office has contracted for every pair of socks that the Belgians can knit. In fact, the need for socks at the present time is so great that a much larger amount could be used. The profits go to maintain a work room for over fourteen hundred Belgian women. It has been planned to use contributions at some time in the future for repatriation and for the maintenance of the knitting industry in Belgium itself. For many crippled and half blinded men, this will form the only employment to which they can look forward for a livelihood.

Total receipts from the United States have reached more than $70,000, all of which has been expended for yarn and machines unless otherwise designated. There have also been many gifts of yarn, totalling about seventy-seven thousand pounds in all.

It has assisted in various ways 3,000 men including some of eight different nationalities and has taught over 300. It has given away over 8,000 gifts to the war blind and taught and aided them in over 50 hospitals. A number of these pupils have already taken their places in the sighted world as competent wage earners.

Among the professions taught in the Lighthouse are handicrafts, languages, typewriting, stenography, commerce, music, modeling, etc. The Committee succors and relieves the blind whenever possible and gives re-education to such as are fitted to profit by its teaching. The organization of the work and teaching in France have been under the volunteer direction of its President there.

The closing of many theatres in Paris, incident to the war, has left many lesser employees of the playhouses in a deplorable condition. Many of the men have gone to the front and left destitute wives and children behind them. Many actors and actresses likewise have to be assisted and the French Actors' Fund was formed here to do this work.

The public who have enjoyed the theatre in France and who are lovers of the drama, together with the theatrical profession, are asked to aid their fellow craftsmen of the French theatre. The Association des Directurs de Theatre de Paris, will distribute the funds. The artist, Rodin, has designed a medal, being struck off at the French Mint and to be offered for sale for the benefit of the Fund.

Up to July 1 $2,237 has been raised.

The French Bureau has for its object the sale of toys and novelties made in France in seven workrooms maintained there by wounded and maimed soldiers. These toys and novelties, it is believed, will ultimately replace upon the American market the toys of German manufacture sold here prior to the war, thus creating a permanent industry for a large part of the French people incapacitated for other work. The proceeds from the sales go to aid both the makers of the toys and the destitute women and children of France.

Mlle. Valentine Thomson, Madame Charles Le Verrier, Mrs. John Ridgeley Carter, and Mrs. Lorillard Ronalds, constitute an Advisory Board in Paris.

The shop at which these articles are sold is at 406 Madison Avenue, New York, and during the past year something more than $27,000 has been received.

This Fund was founded in Paris in October, 1916, with the Honorable W. G. Sharp, American Ambassador to France, as an Honorary President, together with many well-known French and American men and women. A nation-wide appeal for the purpose of saving France from the ravages of tuberculosis, which has been so widespread in that country, was made by Walter E. Maynard, President of the American Committee.

The French Committee has opened a Receiving Hospital at Auteuil, where 25 patients are received at a time and who are later sent to the sanatorium maintained by the fund in Switzerland. Arrangements for the care of a much larger number of patients are being made. The tuberculous soldiers will be sent to the Chateau de la Fontaine at Yerres and three other sanatoria are expected to be ready in the early Fall. Discharged soldiers are sent to Mardor, women and children to Saussy and boys to La Xhaumette, where a school of agriculture is being organized.

The medical work is being done chiefly by American physicians specialists in tuberculosis. Dr. William Charles White, Associate Professor of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh, and Medical Director of the Tuberculosis League of Pittsburgh and Director of the Executive Committee of the National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, is in France and in general charge of the work.

MRS. H. R. BECKWITH, Executive Secretary

The Hospital Under Three Flags is at Ris-Orangis, near Paris, in the Versailles region. It was founded in the Spring of 1915 by Lady Johnstone, formerly Miss Antoinette Pinchot, of New York, the wife of Sir Alan Johnstone, late British Ambassador at The Hague, and by Mr. Harold Reckitt, an English manufacturer.

This work was developed by Dr. Joseph Blake who was called in April to take charge of one of the largest military hospitals in France. He was succeeded as chief surgeon at Ris-Orangis by Major William L. Keller, M.D., of the United States Army, one of our best known and most skillful military surgeons, who had charge of a large base hospital on the Texas border. He is assisted by Captain George M. Edwards, M.D., and Captain Daniel P. Card, M.D., both of the United States Army, and all of whom have been given leave of absence by the War Department to fill their respective important posts.

Since its founding in the Spring of 1915, one thousand and twenty cases have been treated in the hospital. There have been 513 cases of compound fracture, the greater number of which have been fractures of the leg, thigh, arm and forearm. There have been about 50 cases of wounds of the head, about 75 of wounds of the thorax and about 25 of wounds of the abdomen. Notwithstanding the severity of the cases treated, there have been only 21 deaths, a mortality rate of about 2 per cent. About half of these deaths were from causes other than surgical condition, such as tuberculosis and apoplexy. Of the 1,020 cases it has been necessary to amputate in only 8. This is considerably less than 1 per cent. of the men treated.

The Committees are now engaged in raising $10,000,000 additional during the present year, approximately one-half of which has already been contributed. Gratitude for the assistance of France to the American Colonies in Revolutionary days, resulted in the formation of the La Fayette Fund in December, 1914. The idea was conceived by Mrs. William Astor Chanler and Miss Emily Sloane, now Baronne de La Grange. The purpose of the La Fayette Fund is to send Comfort Kits to ameliorate the hardships of the French soldiers in the trenches, and to date more than one hundred thousand Kits, of a value of $2.00 each, have been sent. The total money raised for this purpose to June 1, 1917, was $212,234.05. Postal cards addressed to the contributors are enclosed with each Kit, enabling the soldier who receives the Kit to communicate his appreciation to the donor.

A payment of $500 entitles a person to become a founder of the Fund; $100, a sustainer; $20, a subscriber, and $2 or more a contributor.

The Executive Committee of the Fund has guaranteed all expenses of administration, so that the whole of each contribution goes for the purpose for which it is intended.

The League of the Allies has for its object relief for the sufferers in all the countries affiliated with the Entente in the prosecution of the war against the Central Empires.

The National American Allied Bazaar, to be held in November at the Grand Central Palace, under the auspices of the League of the Allies, is expected to earn more money for the War Sufferers than the Allied Bazaar held in June, 1916.

The League has between ten and fifteen thousand members, and is a New York State organization. It has branches in Brooklyn, Poughkeepsie, the Rockaways, Ossining, Great Neck, Forest Hills and Peekskill, together with various units connected with Catholic Churches and other institutions.

The League of Catholic Women was organized five years ago with the intention of co-operating with other civic bodies in New York City, but all other work it has undertaken has been set aside in face of the present war.

At a meeting held at the residence of Mrs. Joseph J. O'Donohue on February 19, 1917, one hundred and fifty women passed the resolution to co-operate with the National League for Woman's Service.

Influenced by the patriotic enthusiasm shown at this meeting, Mrs. P. J. Gallagher offered her residence, 154 East 38th Street, as the Headquarters for the League of Catholic Women so long as the war lasts.

Workrooms have been opened at the Headquarters, and those desiring to volunteer their services for two or three hours are welcome at any time from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M. Regulation hospital supplies, garments for women and children and baby kits are made in the workrooms according to Red Cross and French standards. All of the output is to be sent to France, for our own soldiers and sailors as well as for those of the Allies.

The League co-operates with other Catholic organizations such as Settlements, Sodalities and Sewing Circles. Classes in Surgical Dressings, Canteen Cooking and Social and Welfare work are being held at Headquarters.

This organization was founded in May, 1916, at the request of the French Government. Its purpose is to provide the wounded in the hospitals in the war zones, cut off from relatives and friends, with food and delicacies necessary to their more speedy recovery. The lives of thousands of men have been saved by providing them with food from the Le Bien-Etre Kitchens, which the hospitals themselves could not supply. The American Central Committee, as a minimum, seeks to maintain contributions of $5,000 a month. Five dollars per soldier is estimated as the entire cost of giving the wounded what is required during his stay in the war zone hospital. Some of these things are condensed milk, soups, beef cubes, cocoa, chocolate, jams, jellies, preserves, sugar, tea and coffee, etc. Thousands of tons of these supplies have been shipped to France, but not one ounce has been sunk.

The organization is a French, not an American, one. Monthly shipments have been contributed by Mrs. Ives Goddard, of Providence, and Mrs. Hamilton Fish Webster, of Newport, and the Boston Committee has contributed about $2,000. In all, approximately 450,000 francs in money and foodstuffs has been sent to France for the kitchens, chiefly through the labors of Mrs. Atherton and Mr. Moffat.

The cost of running a hospital of five hundred beds is 1,000 francs per month, and anyone who will assume this responsibility may have the hospital bear his name and may communicate directly with the Marquise d'Andigne, 7 Rue Tronchet, Paris. Other donations should be addressed to the Treasurers, Messrs. John Monroe & Company, 360 Madison Avenue, New York City.

BENJAMIN GUINNESS, American Chairman and Treasurer

This Committee is known in America as Lord Charles Beresford's Fund, and has nearly 800 branches. Its purpose is to supply fresh fruits and vegetables to the fleets of the Allies, and to the Naval Hospitals. Over 20,000,000 pounds of fruits and vegetables have already been distributed in this manner. It also distributes to Army Camps and Depots.

The Committee has the recognition and support of the British Admiralty and the British War Office.

The Fund is also distributing fruits and vegetables to the American Fleet, co-operating with the British and French. Many American firms have given large contributions of these supplies and there have been considerable contributions of money also, a large part of which has been sent to the English Treasurer, Mr. Drummond, of Drummond's Bank, London, England. The English Treasurers are Messrs. Jackson, Pixley & Company, 58 Coleman Street, London, E. C., England.

MISS CLARA S. DASHIELL, Executive Secretary

The Mayfair War Relief was organized at the very outbreak of the war, with the primary object of supplying relief to the Belgian refugees, but its activities have since been expanded to supply the demands for hospital and surgical dressings not met by the Red Cross or other organizations. During the past two years this has been a very important part of the work, and, in all, several hundred thousand articles have been sent abroad. There are 42 sustaining members who support a guaranteed fund which covers current expenses, but this membership is to be doubled with the idea of meeting the greatly increased demands upon the organization and to provide for the necessary expansion.

There are a number of sub-committees established throughout the country.

The special package department has become of large importance to the friends and relatives of French and Belgian soldiers, their neglected families, and the refugees from evacuated regions. These packages are received and personally distributed by our representatives in France.

The Boy Comrade Service handles correspondence from more than eighteen hundred American boys with French, Belgian and British soldiers.

Paralysis Relief Committee

The Militia of Mercy was organized in the Summer of 1916. Its name implies the character of the work it performs in several directions. Its first task was to provide necessities and comforts for the American soldiers called to the Mexican border in 1916 and to assist their families. In the Fall of that year, when the ravages of Infantile Paralysis were severely felt in New York City, it organized the first Infantile Paralysis Ambulance Service and conveyed more than 5,000 little cripples from their homes to the clinics for the vitally necessary after-treatment. These ambulances covered more than 13,000 miles in New York City.

The charitable work of the Militia of Mercy is done without regard to class or creed distinction. It is the belief of the organizers that there should be a levelling of classes as a result of the sufferings incident to the war.

The organization acting under the authorization of Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels and Commodore R. P. Forshaw, commanding the Naval Militia of the State of New York, is caring for the needy families of the Naval Militiamen, our first line of civilian defense, and has a plan which provides in the maximum for the care of more than 4,000 of these families. This is known as "The Militia of Mercy's Plan of Automobile Visiting Units." There are at present more than 70 automobiles listed for use in this service.

THE LONDON MOTOR VOLUNTEER CORPS

390 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY

This Committee has for its purpose the assistance of soldiers arriving in London on their return from the trenches and protects them from being preyed upon by the unscrupulous. The London Motor Volunteer Corps meets all night trains and welcomes returning sailors and soldiers, who are taken to their destinations in motor transports or to shelters provided by the Y. M. C. A., the Church of England, and the Catholic Church, where they are cared for during the night.

The same work is to be done for American soldiers, and it is hoped to raise funds for as many busses as possible, each costing $1,700, to be grouped in units of six, each unit to be marked, "The American Squadron."

The Honorary President is John Lister-Kaye, Bart. Patron-in-Chief is Field Marshal Viscount French.

The total receipts of the National Allied Relief Committee to July 1 were $1,063,883.38. It is estimated that the Committees operating with it have raised more than $10,000,000 in cash for the prosecution of War Relief in the countries of the Entente Allies, and this is exclusive of very large contributions of goods and money forwarded through their efforts, by the War Relief Clearing House.

The National Allied Relief Committee, which has jumped into the forefront of War Relief organizations in the matter of both influence and effectiveness, was organized in July, 1915, with the objects of making known to the people of America the needs of the sufferers in the Allied countries, and to raise money for their relief, as well as to co-ordinate the activities of various Committees appealing for funds and to co-operate with them.

The success the Committee has had is eloquently evidenced by the steadily increasing number of important organizations which have affiliated themselves with it for co-operation. There are now more than forty of these organizations. The National Allied Relief Committee has furthermore co-operated with the War Relief Clearing House for France and Her Allies, and the larger part of the money raised has been expended through the Clearing House, as designated by the Committee, for purposes approved by the Clearing House.

The Great Allied Bazaar held in June, 1916, was under the auspices of the National Allied Relief Committee, and the Bazaars in Boston and Chicago were indirect results of the success of the New York Bazaar.

Total expenses of the Committee have been about 11 per cent. of the money raised—a proportion which compares most favorably with the proportion of expense to collections of permanent local charities.

The Committee was originally organized by John Moffat, Frederick H. Allen, T. C. Glen-Coats, Norman Hapgood and Karl Davis Robinson. Its Honorary President is Charles W. Eliot, President Emeritus of Harvard University, and as President, Norman Hapgood. The officers of its Executive Committee which actively directs its affairs are: Edwin G. Merrill, President of the Union Trust Company of N. Y., Chairman; James A. Blair, Jr., of Blair & Company, Treasurer; A. W. Kelley, for many years Vice-President of the Union Trust Company of N. Y., Secretary; and James Marwick, of Marwick, Mitchell, Peat & Company, Auditor, while John Moffat, who had been chiefly instrumental in the organization of the Committee, acts as Vice-Chairman. The Hon. Moorefield Storey is acting as Honorary President of the Massachusetts Committee, while the Executive Committee in Boston consists of I. Tucker Burr, Chairman; Edward M. Pickman, Secretary; Boylston A. Beal, Ralph Adams Cram, Rev. Paul Revere Frothingham, Mrs. Barrett Wendell and Hervey E. Wetzel.

The National League for Woman's Service was organized at the Congress for Constructive Patriotism, held in Washington in January, 1917, and which was endorsed by the Congress of the United States. A Woman's Session was held, at which over 500 women from all sections of the United States were present.

The objects of the League are stated as follows: "To standardize the work of Women of America along lines of Constructive Patriotism; to develop the resources, and to promote the efficiency of women in meeting their every-day responsibilities to Home, to State, to Nation and to Humanity; to provide organized, trained groups in every community prepared to co-operate with the Red Cross and other agencies dealing with any calamity—fire, flood, famine, economic disorder, etc., and in time of war, to supplement the work of the Red Cross, the Army and Navy, and to deal with the questions of 'Woman's Work and Woman's Welfare.' The slogan of the organization is: 'For God, For Country, For Home.'"

The League has enlisted the services and co-operation of approximately a million and a half women, representing every section of the country. Inasmuch as five days after the League came into existence the Nation was confronted with the possibility of early war with Germany, an Emergency Program was developed under which the League is now in operation through organized Committees in 38 states.

Many of the larger national organizations of women have become affiliated with the League.

NATIONAL SURGICAL DRESSINGS COMMITTEE OF AMERICA

Headquarters: 299 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY

MRS. MARY HATCH WILLARD, Chairman
MISS CARITA SPENCER, Vice-Chairman
FREDERICK L. ELDRIDGE, Treasurer, Empire Trust Co.

The National Surgical Dressings Committee of America was organized in October, 1914, to supply surgical dressings to the hospitals of the Allies and has since been organized in 26 states, each having a State Chairman and a number of local committees, of which there are now nearly one thousand. There are Distributing Bureaus in Paris for France and Belgium; at Bordeaux, for Southern France; at London, for England, Russia, Serbia and Salonika, and in Rome, for Italy, while a Distributing Bureau is also being organized for Russia.

In addition to surgical dressings, many other useful articles for the care of the sick and wounded are provided and special dressings to suit special needs are prepared. Many French women, made destitute by the war, are employed in Paris, together with two hundred volunteer workers, to prepare these dressings.

The various State and local Committees finance their own work. There are no executive salaries, and office and shipping space has been contributed free by donors, as have heat, light, telephone, office equipment, stationery, packing cases, trucking and most of the printing for the organization. The output of the Committee is shipped through the War Relief Clearing House to France and Italy, and also without charge, by the International Mercantile Marine, to England.

Up to June, 1917, there had been shipped 14,687,386 dressings distributed among the following countries: France, England, Serbia, Montenegro, Italy, Belgium, Poland, Roumania, Switzerland, Africa, Malta, Syria and Greece. There have also been shipped large quantities of other supplies. A total of about $50,000 in cash has been received since the formation of the Committee. The Committee from now on will prepare dressings for the American Army as well as for the soldiers of the Allies and ten million additional dressings is the goal immediately sought.

The Committee co-operates with the Red Cross, the Women's Department of the National Civic Federation, and the National League for Women's Service, and both foreign and domestic war relief are included within its scope.

Mrs. Mary Hatch Willard, the President, was the founder of the Society in America, having engaged in the undertaking following a visit to France in the early days of the war.

The Needle Work Guild of America was organized thirty-two years ago to provide garments for out-going patients from hospitals and other institutions and to serve as an emergency body in time of local or national disaster. Prior to the outbreak of the European War, a branch had been established in Lyons, France, which immediately upon the declaration of hostilities took up War Relief work. Its first assistance was the clothing of Belgian refugees, and as the result of an appeal to the members in the United States, $20,000 was sent to France in December, 1914, with which workrooms were opened in Lyons. More than three hundred women were given employment and twenty-five thousand garments were distributed to the Lyons hospitals for the wounded.

Since that date no money contributions have been asked by the Guild itself, but each branch doing War Relief work has collected its own funds with which materials have been purchased.

Nearly one million garments and surgical dressings have been distributed in France and sent to her Allies by one hundred and seventy-three branches of the Needle Work Guild in the United States.

This Committee, formed in June, 1915, has for its object the relieving of the distress of non-combatant Italians. A workshop has been maintained at 39 Bennett Street, Boston, where wives of reservists have been employed in making socks and clothing for the Italian hospitals at the front, and are paid for the work they do. A stock of supplies of wool, anaesthetics, etc., has been sent direct to Italy, and several hundred women and children have been provided for during the winter months.

From the organization of the Fund in July, 1915, to July 1, there have been about nine hundred subscribers, and the money raised has approximated $45,000. More than nineteen thousand articles have been completed and forwarded to Italy.

The Polish Victims' Relief Fund had collected to July 1, 1917, $808,605.45, and on that date had in its treasury a balance of $53,039.29. The funds raised in this country have been cabled, in part to the General Polish Relief Committee of Switzerland, and in part to Polish refugees in Russia and Siberia. Funds have also gone for the relief of the Polish population in Polish territories still held by the Russian Government, and funds have also been sent to Miss Marie Mickiewicz, for the relief of Polish refugees in France and England.

The Polish Victims' Relief Fund has received written endorsement from the American Department of State, particularly as regards the organization maintained in Switzerland.

The Fund maintains two branches: one, the Clothing and Hospital Supply Committee, at 411 Fifth Avenue, New York City, the Chairman of which is Miss Eleanor Blodgett, and the Universal Grants Committee, of which the Chairman is Mrs. Jane Arctowska, of Hastings, N. Y.

The Clothing and Hospital Supply Committee is co-operating with the Red Cross, devoting one-half of its time to work of the Navy League.

Mr. and Mrs. Paderewski have made many tours of the country for the purpose of raising funds for the aid of the Polish War Victims and these tours have resulted in very large contributions.

The disbursements of money collected in the United States are supervised by a Committee in Petrograd and by Thomas Whittimore, who represents the Committee in the field in Russia.

There are branches in New York and Boston, the Boston Branch being particularly active. Colonel Lee Higginson is Treasurer of this branch and Mr. R. I. Barr, Treasurer of the New York Branch.

This Committee, recently formed to aid people of Roumania overwhelmed by the German military forces, has before it a heavy task. About two-thirds of the Kingdom of Roumania has been occupied by the enemy; towns and villages have been burned, the women violated, and old men, women and children murdered. German Armies have seized the food supplies of that part of Roumania within their jurisdiction and little can be done to help the unfortunates there, but many thousands fled to what is left of free Roumania, with barely clothes on their back and are without shelter and without food.

The funds raised in America are to go to the relief of both the refugees and the wounded and the sick soldiers, and will be expended in purchasing food, clothing and medical supplies, which the Roumanian Government will forward free of cost. Supplies will be distributed under the direct authority of the Queen of Roumania, to whom all goods will be consigned.

The Committee, in the few weeks since its organization, has received $5,000 in cash, exclusive of pledges of considerable sums by sub-committees throughout the country.

Starvation upon a scale more widespread than in any other country, because of the immensity of its population, is existent in Russia. With the realization of the new democracy in that country, this Committee was formed for the purpose of evidencing the long existing friendship of Americans for Russia. Five million men, women and children, driven from Poland and Galicia into the provinces of Russia, are without food, clothing and shelter. There is also a dangerous dearth of hospital supplies and equipment, and it is to aid in relieving these needs, that the Russian War Relief Committee has been formed to support the Wynne-Bevan Ambulance Unit.

Contributions should be sent care of the National Allied Relief Committee, and will be remitted intact to the Committee in Edinburgh.

This Fund has been formed for providing comforts for the men of the Highland Scottish Regiments, for training disabled soldiers of these regiments, to fit them for agricultural and other pursuits. The Association has already helped to establish a farm colony in the North of Scotland, where disabled men of the Highland Regiments, returning from the front, are provided, not only with a home, but with necessary instructions to enable them later to become self-supporting.

Contributions are also used to provide comforts for the men of the Highland Regiments at the front and the Association seeks ultimately to relieve distress among the families of the soldiers.

The organization has the hearty support of the Saint Andrew's Society of New York and its officials.

MORTON PRINCE, Chairman, 54 Devonshire Street
EVERETT MORSS, Secretary, 101 Devonshire Street

The object of the Fund is to relieve distress amongst civilians in Serbia and elsewhere, refugees, Serbian military and civilian prisoners interned in camps in Germany, Austria-Hungary and Bulgaria, and to aid Serbian hospitals with supplies of all kinds.

It has been actively engaged in this work since the early part of the war. Money, food, clothing and medical supplies have been forwarded as the exigencies have demanded. Owing to the peculiar difficulties pertaining to Serbian relief due to the occupation of nearly the whole of Serbia by the enemy, the Committee has co-operated with the British, French and Serbian Relief Committees and the American Red Cross contributing money or supplies, according as the difficulties of the situation could be best overcome, and relief most effectively and quickly provided. The guiding principle has been the relief of the most urgent distress by the most responsible and efficient agencies available. It has thus actively cooperated with the New York Serbian Relief Committees with which it is in close relations.

MADAME SLAVKO GROUITCH, Director

The work of this Fund which has been to provide supplies to the Serbian Hospitals and to assist stricken and bereaved families, has been largely conducted by Madame Grouitch, who, since her return to the United States in March, 1916, has collected $100,000. The Committee has had the co-operation of men and women in Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Haven, Boston, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago and other cities.

Comfort Kits for convalescing Serbian soldiers, equipment for a five hundred bed hospital, forwarding of motor trucks, ambulances, tents, and rubber blankets, etc., have been part of the activities of the organization, many hundreds of cases of supplies in all having been forwarded.

Most of the distribution has been made through Colonel Karanovitch, Chief of the Medical Service, of the Serbian Ministry of War. Small regular pensions are paid to needy Serbian students and to destitute Serbian families of the educated classes in Greece, France and Switzerland, and relief sent to prisoners of war.

No deduction from contributions has been made* for the expenses of the administration, these having been met by interest on deposits and private gifts. The contributions have been divided into three classifications, Serbian Hospitals, Serbian Prisoners of War, and for relief of Serbians, including maintenance, care and education.

The Serbian Relief Committee of America was founded February 6, 1915, under the name of the "Serbian Agricultural Relief Committee." It sent to Serbia, seed and tools for the re-planting of farms devastated by the Austrian invasion. It next contributed money for the relief of the Typhus epidemic and then organized itself into a General Relief Committee, dropping the word "Agricultural." A special fund was raised for the Typhus orphans and $11,000 was expended in transporting refugees from Serbia to Italy.

Through the efforts of Miss Kathleen Burke and Mrs. Charles H. Farnum, $30,000 was raised for the Scottish Women's Hospitals in Serbia. Co-operating with the American Red Cross, $59,000 worth of food was distributed among the starving Serbians in Belgrade, after the German occupation and though for a time temporarily discontinued, has now been re-opened with the co-operation of the Government of Switzerland. The Committee at present is also aiding Serbian prisoners in Austria and Germany to whom it transports food and Serbian refugees in Macedonia. The total fund of the Committee now amounts to more than $342,000. Total expenditures for relief are $238,975.48, which sum was chiefly raised by Miss Helen Losanitch.

There are 42 dormitories, containing 18 to 50 beds and from 1,800 to 2,200 persons are lodged in the building. An average of 4,000 meals are served daily. Contributions and other receipts totaling $315,163.09, up to June 15, 1917, were received by the New York Committee of the Secours National, which is the principal organization in France for the relief of non-combatant sufferers from the war. There was sent $235,296.50 in cash to France, $77,136.25 in goods purchased. In addition to this, three hundred and nine cases of clothing and food stuffs, contributed, and valued at $30,900, were also sent to France.

The Secours National provides immediate relief for the inhabitants of places destroyed by the enemy and provides funds for the reconstruction of their homes. It maintains workshops for the unemployed, supports shelters and restaurants for French and Belgian Refugees, makes provision for the care of orphaned or lost children and of the aged, and assists in the relief of civilians made prisoners by the Germans and later sent back to France through Switzerland, usually in a destitute and pitiful condition.

The Committee co-operates with the American Relief Clearing House of France and acts without charge as a Purchasing and Forwarding Agent for organizations and individuals wishing to contribute funds or supplies.

There is no deduction from contributions for operating expenses, which are met privately.

SHAMROCK FUND

39 EAST 58TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY

COUNTESS OF KINGSTON, President
MISS MARY DOUGHERTY, Secretary

The purpose of the Shamrock Fund is to provide for the disabled Irish soldiers and sailors of all religions, who have been permanently disabled on the battle front and who, like the soldiers of France and Belgium, must be rehabilitated and, on recovery from their wounds, taught new trades and occupations, by which to earn a livelihood.

A home has been donated in Stillorgan County, Dublin, to the Committee of the Soldiers and Sailors Help Society Employment Bureau, 35 Dawson Street, Dublin, accommodating 150 men, with workshops and schools attached.

As each man completes his training, he is sent to that part of Ireland from which he comes, to ply his trade.

Funds are needed to equip the workshops and provide for the maintenance of the Home. Five hundred dollars a year is required for the training and support of the occupants of each bed in the Home; while men who are so badly injured that they cannot benefit by the training can be cared for in their own homes for $2 a week.

This organization has about eight hundred members. It conducts seven departments, a workroom for surgical dressings, knitting and sewing with branches at the Professional Women's League and the Three Arts Club, for making hospital garments and baby clothes, a book and magazine department, which collects books and magazines for shipments, a department of stock and traveling companies, which does knitting and sewing, collects old clothes, and raises money by benefits, a moving picture division, contributing money, a jam depot at the Twelfth Night Club, which sends sweets to the French soldiers and a jam kitchen for the canning and preserving of fruits for this purpose.

In connection with the activities of the Stage Women's War Relief, the children of the stage are learning to knit and sew for Belgian children and are also to make Petits Flambeaux for the soldiers in the trenches.

Like the National Surgical Dressings Committee of America, of which Mrs. Willard is also Chairman, the formation of the Trench Comfort Packets for U. S. and the Allies, was the outcome of one of Mrs. Willard's visits to France, where she saw how greatly the men at the Military Depot en route for the trenches appreciated warm clothing, a little comfort and necessities, which every soldier needs.

The scope of the Committee's work originally was to supply Comfort Packets for the armies of the Entente Allies, but this has now been broadened to include packets for the American troops which are to fight in France. Twenty-five thousand packets have thus far been shipped, containing that number of new warm garments and two hundred and twenty-five thousand other articles, such as soap, paper and pencil, candles, chocolate, towels, handkerchiefs, etc., etc., etc., and these have been sent to England, France, Belgium, Italy, Russia and Africa.

The Committee has approximately one hundred communities at work and is organizing in the different States, a Chairman for California and Connecticut having already been appointed.

Entirely upon the activities of this organization depend the lives of more than forty thousand Belgian prisoners of war, who are in danger of starving and freezing to death. They cannot receive either messages or food or clothing from their families or homes and these must be supplied through the Committee, the headquarters of which are at Havre, Villa Suzanne Avenue, desire Dehors, and a London Office at 4 London Wall Avenue. The Committee upon request will supply any contributor with the name of a prisoner and on behalf of that person will send parcels regularly to the prisoner undertaking to see that he receives the parcel safely. The name of a prisoner for adoption will be furnished upon application. The cost of a single parcel is $1.25, but it is desired that a lump sum be contributed for as many parcels in advance as may be possible, with instructions as to whether the parcels are to be sent monthly or fortnightly. Each of the parcels contains tobacco, biscuits, butter, cheese, condensed milk, cafe au lait, oxo, jam, ointment or soap, and a piece of warm underclothing.

Mr. John Moffat represents the Committee in this country. Additional funds are sorely needed to provide the direct necessities for the thousands of Belgian prisoners, whose condition is so deplorable.

Up to June, 1917, receipts for the Belgian Prisoners amounted to two and a half million francs. But we now have to send six hundred and fifty thousand francs worth of food and clothes every month.

These are made in the Committee's own workroom, together with socks and machine-knitted garments, which has kept a large number of persons employed. Considerable supplies of food-stuffs have also been shipped through the Committee.

The Committee also acts as a Shipping Depot for smaller societies which send contributions for the War Sufferers in France.

The purpose of the War Babies Cradle is to care for the mothers and children in distress in Northern France and Belgium who lack food, clothing, fuel, and medical attention. The help afforded is done through an agency at Calais, under the superintendence of Comtesse Marie du Hemptinne, a Belgian Lady who visits the families in the stricken districts and so far as possible supplies their needs. Necessities only are purchased with the contributions. The Cradle cares for the mothers for ten days and then exerts its efforts largely for the assistance of the new born children, whose plight under the terrifying and dreadful conditions of their birth is most deplorable. The Committee works in conjunction with the French, Belgian, and British Military Charities.

Mrs. Jules S. Bache, through her individual efforts, has raised more than $10,000 for the children; and a new Committee for the War Babies Cradle has recently been formed, consisting of Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. Edmund C. Baylies, Mrs. Herman Oelrich, Mrs. Orme Wilson, Mrs. Charles Ditson, Lady Colebrook, Mrs. Philip Lydig, Mrs. Lawrence Gillespie, in addition to the gentlemen mentioned as being upon the Executive Committee.

The War Relief Clearing House for France and Her Allies is one of the largest of the American organizations formed to distribute relief for the destitute in the Allied countries. It was organized early in 1915, and on May 1st of that year established its warehouse for the receiving and forwarding of shipments of relief supplies. To August 1st, 1917, it has sent forward more than 101,- 600 cases of hospital supplies, clothing, food products, etc., of an estimated value of more than $7,575,000.00. Its cash receipts aggregate more than $1,800,000.00.

The Clearing House co-operates with and acts for more than 5,000 individual relief organizations, societies, churches, clubs and groups of individuals, situated in the United States, Canada, Hawaiian Islands, Cuba, Bermuda, etc. It is affiliated with the corresponding organization in Paris, The American Relief Clearing House, which is officially recognized by the French Government as one of the chief organizations for the distribution of American relief in France, and is also affiliated with a corresponding organization in Rome, Italy, The American Relief Clearing House of Rome, which is officially recognized by the Italian Government. The Clearing House also works closely with the National Allied Relief Committee of New York.

WHAT THE CLEARING HOUSE DOES.

1. It gives its services and information free to all contributors.
2. It co-operates with the American Relief Clearing House of France and its Committees, representing the various Allied Countries. Such Committees operate under the patronage of the Heads of the respective Governments.
3. It is kept reliably informed as to what form of relief is most needed and where, and disseminates such information to affiliated organizations in America.
4. It acts as a purchasing and forwarding agent for organizations and individuals wishing to contribute funds or supplies, thereby giving contributors the benefit of its exceptional prices.
5. It obtains free shipment, with few exceptions, for contributions from New York to the designated destination in Europe.
6. It enters contributions of supplies into ports of the Allied countries, free of Customs duties.
7. It is given free transportation for supplies over the French and Italian railways.
8. It delivers supplies where they are most needed by the quickest and surest route.
9. It does away with the former confusion, delay and waste.
10. It makes no charge for its services, and all contributions for relief are delivered intact, without deduction for operating expenses.
11. It solicits inquiries regarding relief work.

All communications relating to the work of the War Relief Clearing House should be addressed to Clyde A. Pratt, Executive Secretary, 40 Wall Street, New York City.
